NARRATIVE / DOCUMENTARY

---

Balance of Power

Daniel Falconer, director

Feature documentary dealing with the general lack of government responsiveness to the will of average citizens while examining the specific ways Congress is manipulated to block popular reforms.

89 Blocks

Josh Oshinsky, director

Feature-length documentary about a high school football team in St. Louise's East Side and the young men who hope to escape the neighborhood's cycle of poverty by proving themselves on the field.

Sunshine Superman

Marah Strauch, director

A heart-racing documentary portrait of Carl Boenish, the father of the BASE jumping movement, whose early passion for skydiving led him to ever more spectacular -and dangerous- feats of foot-launched human flight.

*2014 Toronto Film Festival (Opening Night)

Don Peyote

Michael Canzoniero & Dan Fogler, directors

Feature film about a neurotic New Yorker obsessed with the end of the world.

Stairway From Hell

Christian Bunz, director

A documentary about three children, who's opportunity to escape from abject poverty in the Philippines takes each of them on an inspiring journey.

Fame Is A Killer

Hart Perry, director

A documentary examining celebrity culture through the ages.

Taxi To The Darkside

Alex Gibney, director

(Additional Editing)

A feature documentary that takes an in-depth look at the torture practices of the United States in Afghanistan, Iraq and Guantanamo Bay, focusing on an innocent taxi driver in Afghanistan who was tortured and killed in 2002.

* 2008 Academy Award for Best Documentary

Why We Fight Now

Mark Benjamin, director

Frank Capra, producer

A feature documentary on the United States Special Forces (Green Berets), and their unique ability to fight terrorism in Iraq and Afghanistan. The documentary contrasts the efforts that the Bush Administration has in place, and provides a clear solution on how terrorism should be fought.

Woodpecker

Alex Karpovsky, director

This feature film follows the misadventures of Johnny Neander, a housepainter, as he travels to the swamplands of Arkansas' Big Woods in search of the elusive "Lord God Bird," the Ivory Billed Woodpecker. Recently accepted to the 2007 IFP Market.

NRDC: Laws of Nature

Alex Gibney, director

A 20-minute promotional film about the world's leading Environmental Organization: The Natural Resources Defense Council. Created to screen at the 2007 Force for Nature event honoring Vanity Fair magazine's Graydon Carter.

Behind Those Eyes

Alex Gibney, director

Feature length tour-film/documentary follows the band 3 Doors Down from the end of their last tour, through the recording of their new album "17 Days" and the subsequent promotional appearances and recent tour.

Johnny BerlinDominic J. DeJoseph, director*

A hit on the festival circuit in 2006-07, this documentary is a character portrait of Johnny Berlin, a porter aboard a luxury train who expounds upon his life as a struggling writer while holding down a workaday job on board. The film is ultimately an intimate, offbeat, and humorous portrait of a mid-life crisis.

Ryan Adams: Rock is HellDominic J. DeJoseph, director*

Feature length tour-film / documentary released in Mercury/Lost Highway Records September of 2004. The film covers the East coast leg of his tour supporting "Love is Hell" and "Rock and Roll" the two albums he simultaneously released. Best described as a portrait of a very restless musician, the film focuses on Ryan's approach to life on the road.

R.E.M.: Video Free EuropeDominic J. DeJoseph, director*

Feature length tour-film / documentary released by Warner Brothers Record in October of 2002. The film covers the band's tour of Europe promoting their album "Reveal". Structured as a road diary, it includes performances of 12 songs from 12 different concerts along with numerous interludes of the band on the road having fun while maintaining an exhausting promotional schedule.

Never DownRobert Opper, director*

Narrative feature directed by Robert Opper and starring Robert La Sardo. A gritty drama following Rico as he is released from prison and begins the difficult task of reconnecting with his wife and daughter.
